

JAM for JAPAN MUSIC EDUCATION GRANT APPLICATION

Relief International and Musicians Institute are providing Music Education Grants to accredited educational institutions and musicians located in Japan's earthquake and tsunami affected areas within the Miyagi, Fukushima and Iwate Prefectures.

Grants of up to $5,000.00 USD per individual and/or institution may be awarded annually as determined by Relief International and Musicians Institute according to their sole discretion. The purpose of this grant is to provide youth educational music programming assistance, support of recovery efforts to music departments, and to provide new musical instruments to schools with a musical arts curriculum. Jam for Japan Music Education Grant awards are need and talent based. The number of grants awarded will depend on the number of applications received.

Elementary, Junior, and High schools and institutions with existing music programs, active individual musicians and/or bands, or any schools in need of musical instruments are invited to apply and submit their applications no later than FEBRUARY 29, 2012.

Applications must include the following materials:

Please note that submission materials will not be returned.

1. Completed Grant Application.

2. Audiovisual statement or written statement responding to and showcasing the following:
 - a. How have you been affected (if individual applying) OR how has your school or institution been affected by the March 2011 earthquake tsunami?

 - b. Please describe your school's music program and the students enrolled in the program (i.e. what instruments do they play? Grade level?). If individual, describe your music background/talent and goal.

 - c. How has your school's music department shaped your students both personally and as artists?

 - d. How do you envision your music department shaping your school's future, and in what ways do you see the music program making a difference in your community? If individual, describe the same.

 - e. A portion of your video or written statement must showcase the music talent(s) of student(s) enrolled in your school's program.
